

Note Handling Campaign

What is it?

- A component of the sensitization aimed at preserving the life of the notes through better handling
- It will show the good and the bad ways of handling the notes.

Note Handling Campaign

The Message

- Is focused on specific groups and occupations known for extensive handling of banknotes
- The illustrations depict known bad handling forms
- The correct form is depicted next to them
- The messages are in English because literacy is largely in that language.
- The messages should be readable by a primary School pupil
- The poster will be displayed along side that for the resized Notes
